2. Immediately on receipt of the Government Order, the celebration of the happy event was published by beat of tom-tom throughout the City. The programme of events for the day- a copy forwarded herewith included the feeding of the poor on a large scale by Mr. Appana Ramachandra Rao, Government Rice Contractor at the Government Anna Chatram near the Municipal Gardens. Prior to the feeding, there had assembled in the Chatram, in response to the invitations issued by Messrs. Appana Ramachandra Rao & Co., a large and influential gathering. Sirdar M. After the sports were over, sweets were distributed to all the School boys. The prize-winners were then taken to Doddanna's Hall where prizes were distributed to them by me.

5. In response to the call made by the Honorary President, about 3,000 people consisting of the State Officers, Advocates, Merchants and others had assembled in Doddanna's Hall in the evening at 5 P.M. The meeting ended with three cheers to H. M. the King Emperor and Their Highnesses the Maharaja and the Yuvaraja.

6. In the night there were illuminations in the Bazaar Streets. The Market Square was very beautifully illuminated by strings of Electric lights and the illumination was very much appreciated by the Public.

the above sum, a sum of Rs.964-8-8 was spent leaving a balance of Rs.35-7-4 to meet the cost of labour employed for illuminating the Market Square, for which a bill is awaited. A detailed statement of expenditure incurred on the occasion is appended.

9. It may not be out of place to mention here that while the whole world was rejoicing over the happy termination of one single event, viz, the war, we in the Mysore Province have had the additional privilege of rejoicing over the happy and auspicious birth of a son to H. H. the Yuvaraja. In Commemoration of this event, the City Municipal Council, distributed 61 mounds of sugar throughout the length and breadth of the City of Bangalore that very day at a cost of Rs.492/- from Municipal Funds.

10. My thanks are due to Mr. Appana Ramachandra Rao, Government Rice Contractor for having undertaken the task of feeding the poor at his own cost, to the Chief Electrical Engineer for having kindly arranged to illuminate the Market Square at very short notice and to the several Municipal Councillors and Officers who heartily co-operated with me in bringing the functions of the day to a successful termination.

Instructions were issued to the Amildars, Sub Division Officers and Presidents of Municipalities in the District to arrange for the Celebrations of the day in a manner befitting the unique greatness of the occasion. The important events of the celebrations at various places are described below at some length.

On the morning of the 19th July 1919, which was the day fixed for the Peace celebrations in the State, Abhi-shekams and Special Pujas were performed in all the Temples both Muzrai and Private, in the District, and special prayer were offered in them as also in mosques and churches for the long life and prosperity of their Imperial Majesties the King Emperor and the Queen Empress and His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore and for the continuance and permanence of British Rule in India.

All the Educational Institutions in the District celebrated the Peace Celebrations and remarkable enthusiasm was shown by the young men. The School children were assembled in their respective School compounds, the Union Jack and the Mysore Flag were hoisted and the students after saluting the Portrait of their Majesties- the King Emperor and Queen Empress and His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, formed into lines and going in procession saluted the Union Jack and the Mysore Flag. In the District and Taluk Head Quarters the Barr Sepoys and the Police Force in uniform joined the assembly of School children and the decorated portraits of their Imperial Majesties and His Highness the Maharaja were taken in procession with flags to the accompaniment of music through the principal streets of the towns. All Government officers Lawyers, Merchants, Municipal Councillors, Teachers and other leading gentlemen of the locality took part in the processions. The processions terminated at about 11 A.M. After this, sweets were distributed to the students of all the Government and aided schools. All the towns and important villages were tastefully decorated with ever greens, toranams, flags, buntings, &c., indicative of Universal rejoicing.

At Midday after procession, the poor of all classes and large numbers of visitors to the celebration were fed in the District and Taluk Head Quarters. Many private gentlemen in villages undertook to feed the poor at their own residences at their own cost, wherever it was found not possible to arrange for feeding on a large scale and doles of ragi were freely distributed to the poor.

Sports were held in the afternoon for the boy and girl students separately in all the Head Quarter Towns by the teachers of the several Institutions.

The Public Institutions and Principal buildings in all the localities in the District were suitably illuminated in the night. In the evening mass meetings were held in all the Head Quarters towns under the Presidency of the Municipal Presidents, or Vice Presidents or Amildars, when the greatness of occasion and the blessings of the British Rule were impressed on the public. The Memorandum explaining the VICTORY of the ALLIES and summarising the terms of the PEACE TREATY, both in English and Kannad were read to the audience. The meetings concluded with the usual cheers and the singing of the British National as well as the Mysore Anthems.

Fire works were also displayed in most of the towns for the enjoyment of the people who had collected in large numbers.

The actual expenditure incurred besides what was contributed in kind by various leaders of the several communities for feeding amounted to Rs. 675-8-8 as particularised in the enclosed statement.

One of the most eventful days in the annals of Mysore was thus fittingly celebrated in the District, and people of all classes without distinction of caste, creed, or colour, participated in the several functions, festivities and entertainments and joined in one Universal prayer to the ALMIGHTY GOD to shower HIS Choicest blessings on Their Imperial Majesties and His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, and their respective Royal Families.
